

REPUBLIC OF VANUATU

BILL FOR THE GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS
AND TENDERS (AMENDMENT)
ACT NO.            OF 2025

Explanatory Note

This Bill amends the Government Contracts and Tenders Act [CAP 245] (“the Act”).

The Government recognizes the important functions that the Central Tenders Board (“the Board”) is performing by adjudicating and awarding contracts on behalf of the Government.

The Government also recognizes the need to revise and strengthen the processes in which the Chairperson of the Board is appointed and the approval of Government contracts.

This Bill provides for the following amendments:

- for the establishment of the Evaluation Committee to ensure the Chairperson is appointed in a process that is transparent and based on merit; and
- that any person who enters into any Government contract and breaches any provisions of the Act will be personally liable for any loss or damage incurred; and
- that if a provision of the Act conflicts with a provision of any other Act in relation to the procurement process, the provision of this Act will prevail; and
- for the sitting allowance of the Chairperson and the members of the Board; and
- for the repeal of the current immunity provision.
